Principal's Report

Last week I spent three days in Sydney at the Principals Induction. This was a fantastic experience where I got to listen to many leaders in the field of education. The Education Minister, the Hon Rob Stokes, spoke about Education and future directions. One of the areas addressed at the Induction was knowing your students and knowing they are cared for. This is an area which our rural school does well. The staff in our school are dedicated and genuinely care for each and every student. It was nice to see small schools acknowledged in this area.

Representative Sport is well and truly in the full swing with notes going home for students to nominate. Students and parents are reminded that students need to show exemplary behaviour and completing all set tasks to be eligible to attend representative sport.

Notes for Academic Competitions also went home last week. Please make sure this note is returned as soon as possible so students can be entered. These tests are another great way of seeing where your child is at with their learning.

The school has started the process of obtaining a small bus to be used for students on excursions. We are hoping to obtain a 12-seater bus, which all staff will be able to drive. We hope this will help with transporting small groups of students to many excursions in the future.

Assessments have started to be handed out for students in Secondary classes. Mr Small has a list of Assessments that have been handed out and when they are to be handed in. An assessment Calendar will be handed out to all students shortly with all the assessments. If your child is struggling with their assessments, please contact the school. For those students who do not have access to a laptop at home we do have a small group of laptops, which may be borrowed out to students with permission from parents. Please contact the school if you would like to know more information about these laptops.

Again congratulations to Elly Ireland who received her medal for Senior girl Champion, Lower Lachlan yesterday. Well done Elly!

Jacqui Dillon
Principal
